

I am greatly opposed to the weakening of Indiana's law regarding Telephone Privacy. Simply because we own a telephone does not give others the right to interrupt our personal lives. I hope that the current law is not changed. We have been on the "Do-Not-Call" for a long time and have enjoyed our privacy.